Cheryl Moore's dream came true on the night of November 17, 1978 as she was selected Homecoming Queen.

EYRY 79

Created by the Yearbook Staff for the Associated Student Body of Rubidoux High School. 4250 Opal Street, Rubidoux, California. Volume 20.

Being Together

Life at Rubidoux takes many different turns as the classes come together raising money and showing their never-ceasing spirit.

Starting the year off in full force, students can often be found in their counselor's office working on program changes. Once settled into their classes, raising money for this year's activities becomes one of the greatest concerns. But time for raising spirits, lunch-time activities, and just being with friends is somehow found in the hectic, fun-filled days at Rubidoux High School.

Sophomores working hard to earn money for their class. 6. What else, but the Senior Wall. 7. Frosh-Soph Cheer doing what they do best.

Dreaming Together

Even though the school year had just begun, the excitement had reached a boiling point. Letterman's jackets had been brought out of the closet and proud fans cheered on the mighty Falcons to victory.

Finally getting their turn, teachers fired away at A.S.B. members dressed up as helpless Poly Bears. Proving that you're never too old to dress up at Halloween, spirited Falcons were awarded prizes for the best costume, most spirited, etc. There was even a special guest appearance by the famous "It."

In reaching for a dream of a successful year, the seniors raised money by selling Rubidoux High calendars. When not selling calendars, working, studying, or just having a good time, seniors could be found dreaming about that special gift: a new car for graduation.

"HONEY BEAR"

1. Dan and Brenda shop for that new car. 2. Randy showing off his letterman's jacket. 3. Janis sells a Rubidoux calendar to Mr. Manzo. 4. Mrs. Hornsby, Mr. Gray, Mr. Wright and Mrs. Lantz get into the act as they bomb A.S.B. members with water balloons. 5. Halloween fans found "IT" wandering around on campus. 6. Rubidoux cheers the varsity football team to victory against Corona. 7. Mrs. Lantz welcomes new students to Rubidoux.

With different hopes and dreams, R.H.S. students reach for their goals and begin to see things from different aspects. Whether seeing Rubidoux from the lens of a camera or looking down from the "R", smiles of pride and accomplishment can always be found.

A dream of a good Prom can always be found in the hearts of Juniors selling pom poms and spirit buttons helping to send them on their way.

The only thing that can describe the ultimate goal of a sophomore is the phrase "Driver's License." With Driver's Education and Driver's Training out of the way, starry-eyed sophomores form the mile long lines at the D.M.V.

A dream of world travel can sometimes only be filled by the interesting stories from those from other countries. Through this year's foreign exchange student many interesting facts were shared.

Hoping Together

1. Richard, Robidoux's top photographer clicks away. 2. Sandy achieving a Sophomore's dream. 3. Donna, Steve, and Eugene share an interesting day. 4. Kathy sells a pom pon to Lisa. 5. Sandy, Monty, and Suzanne welcome Emmie from the Netherlands. 6. R.H.S. students view Robidoux from just below the "R".

1. Georgia and Pat hanging signs to publicize A.S.B.'s main money maker. 2. A group of friends share ideas and dreams during lunch. 3. Karen and Bobbi selling a yearbook to Pablo. 4. Brenda and Mo share dreams in the shade. 5. Coach Silka shows how it's done.

Setting Goals

With half of the year already gone, a Falcon's life becomes busier than ever. The largest money raiser, the Steve Yeager Golf Tourney, arrived once again keeping A.S.B. members busy working towards another successful project.

Not wanting to miss out on this year's Etry, students emptied their wallets in the mad rush of frantic buyers. But even though their wallets were empty or thin, their hearts were full of anticipation as the basketball season was ushered in by hours of concentration as the team practiced under the watchful eye of their coach.

As the days at R.H.S. quickly flew by, students somehow found time to relax and discuss the days events. Sharing ideas, dreams and plans, students look forward to the realization of their goals.

1. Kitty and Barbie deciding what books they need for class. 2. Drafting students showing how it's done. 3. Ken, David and Dale showing what true friendship really is. 4. Tim and Polly enjoying the good times at brunch. 5. Bea enjoying her work in class.

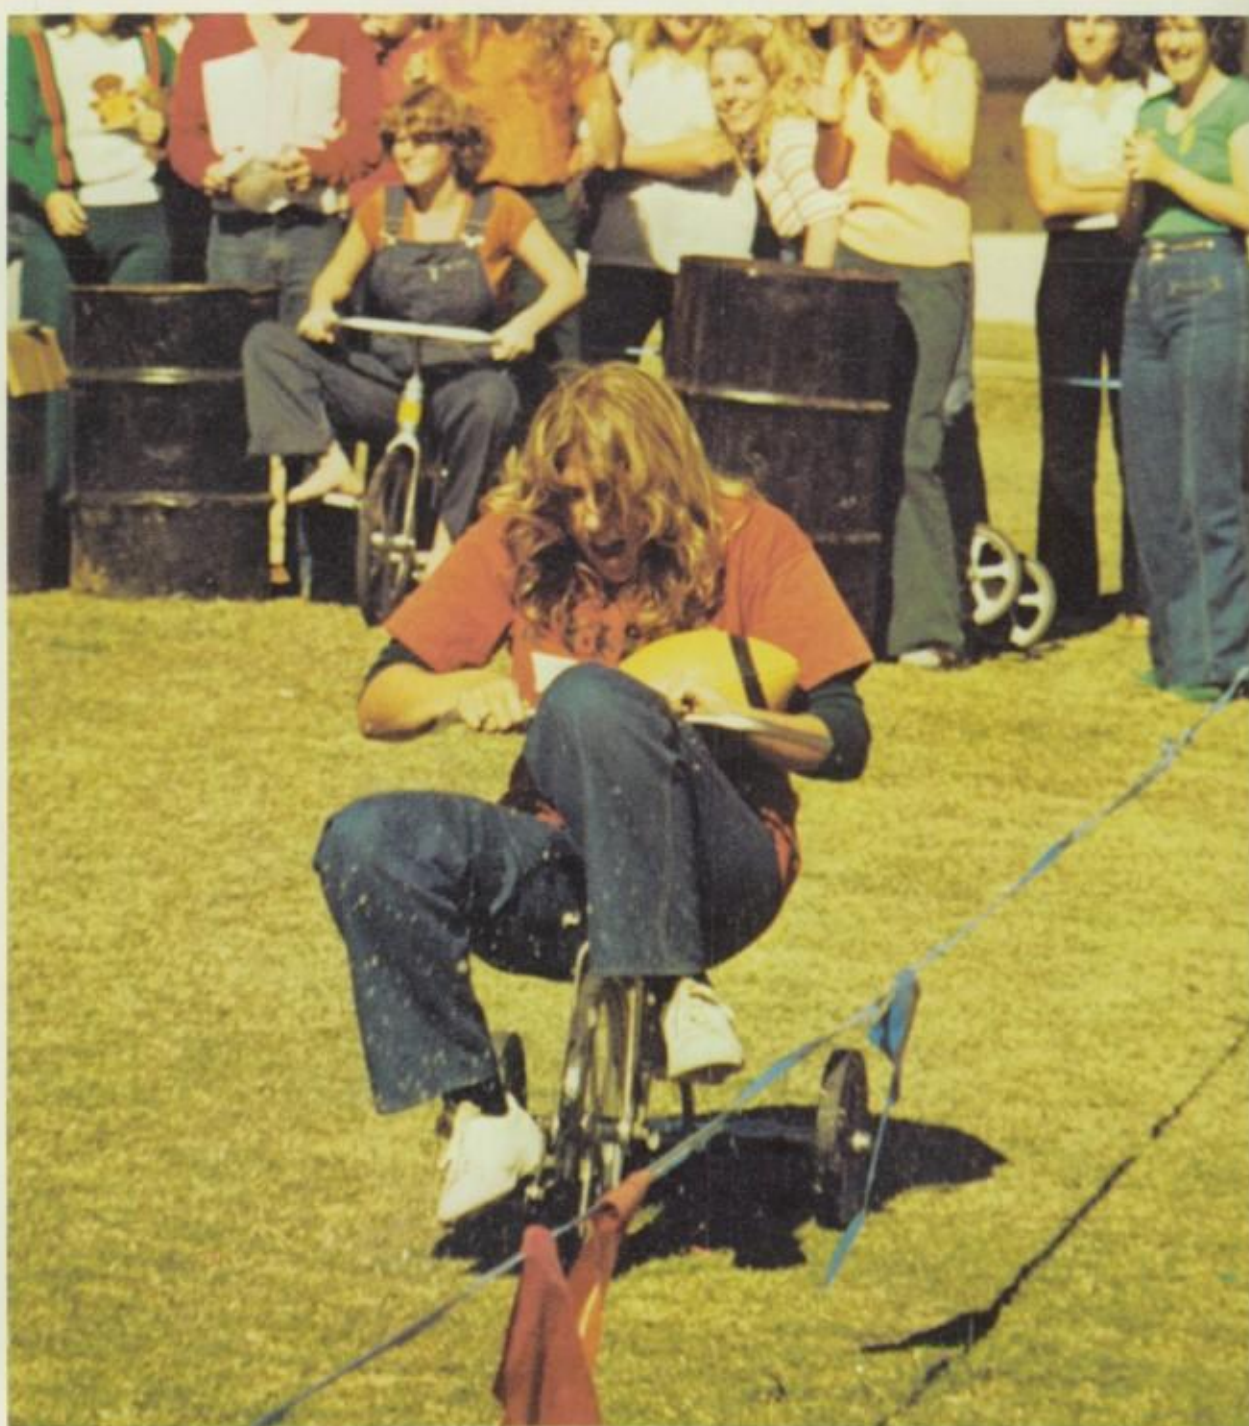

Learning Together

With only five minutes to get from one class to another, R.H.S. students become quick talkers as they squeeze in time to talk with friends. After arriving in that "all-important" class, learning together the knowledge that yields success can sometimes be fun and sometimes a drag. Students learn that life can be enjoyed in the classroom.

When that break arrives in the middle of the day, friends can be found to share the laughter, the seriousness, and the craziness that is packed into each day at R.H.S. True friends can be hard to come by, but once found just being together can become the most important part of the day.

Unlocked Dreams

With the coming of baseball season, the year comes to an end. Summer has arrived and tears and congratulations fill a senior's last days at Rubidoux. Plans for the future are awaiting reality as many students apply for jobs. But time for remembering days gone by can be found as students look back at the many memories made and shared at R.H.S. The craziness of a trike ride with a football in hand while dodging water balloons, a snack and a chat during lunch, a run batted in that wins the game, or just a glance backward at a departing friend can leave its mark in the minds of seniors. Each little episode held in the heart of a Rubidoux High student. Each one holding the key to his or her future locked up in a dream that may become a reality.

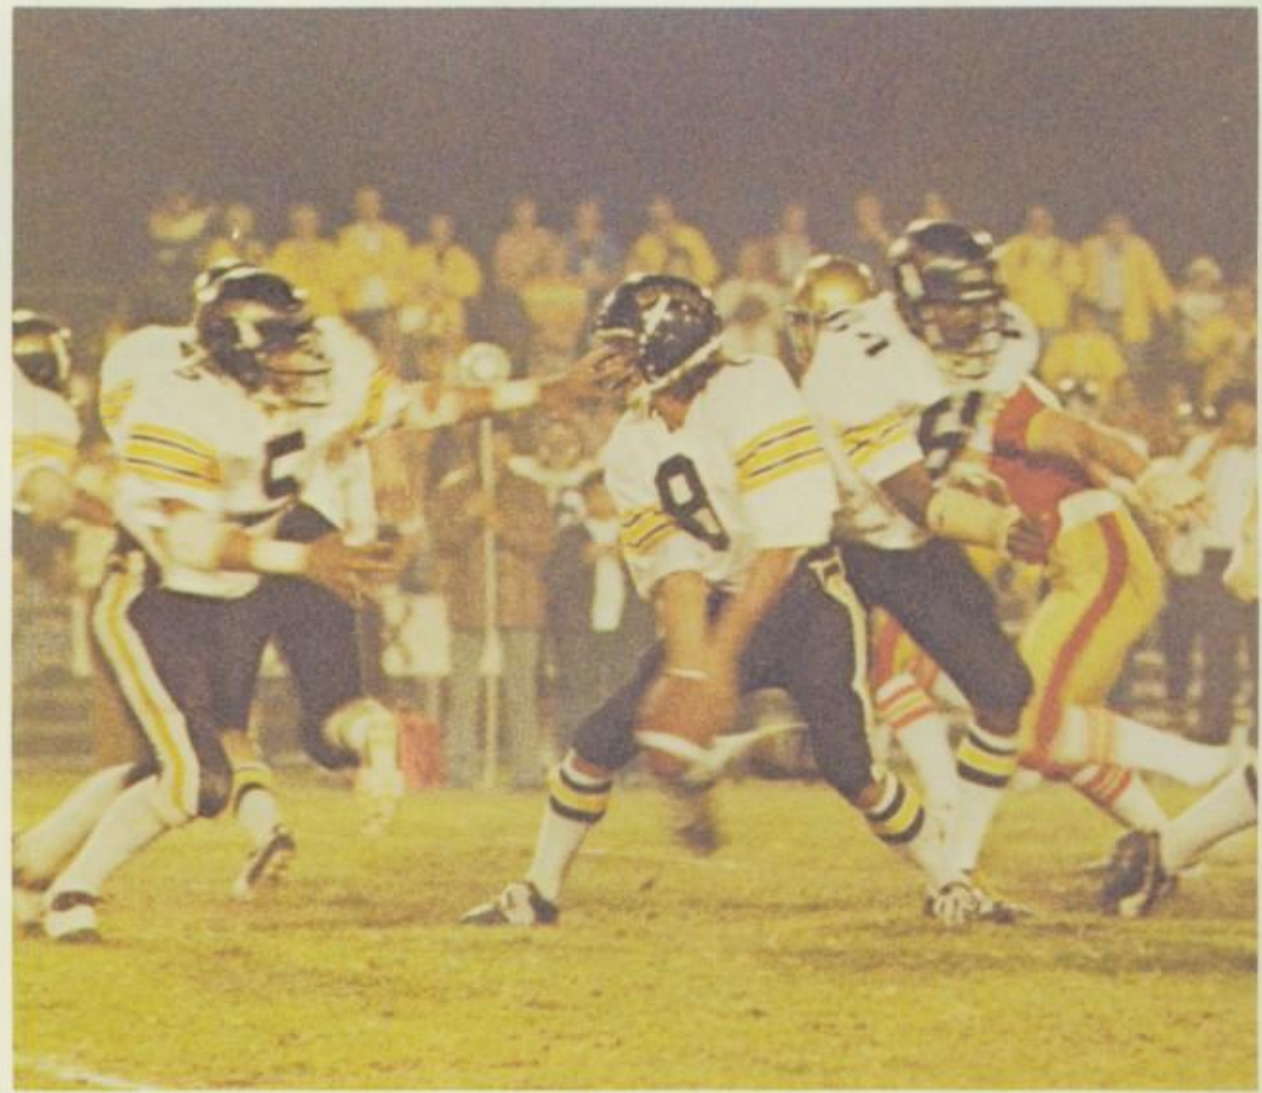

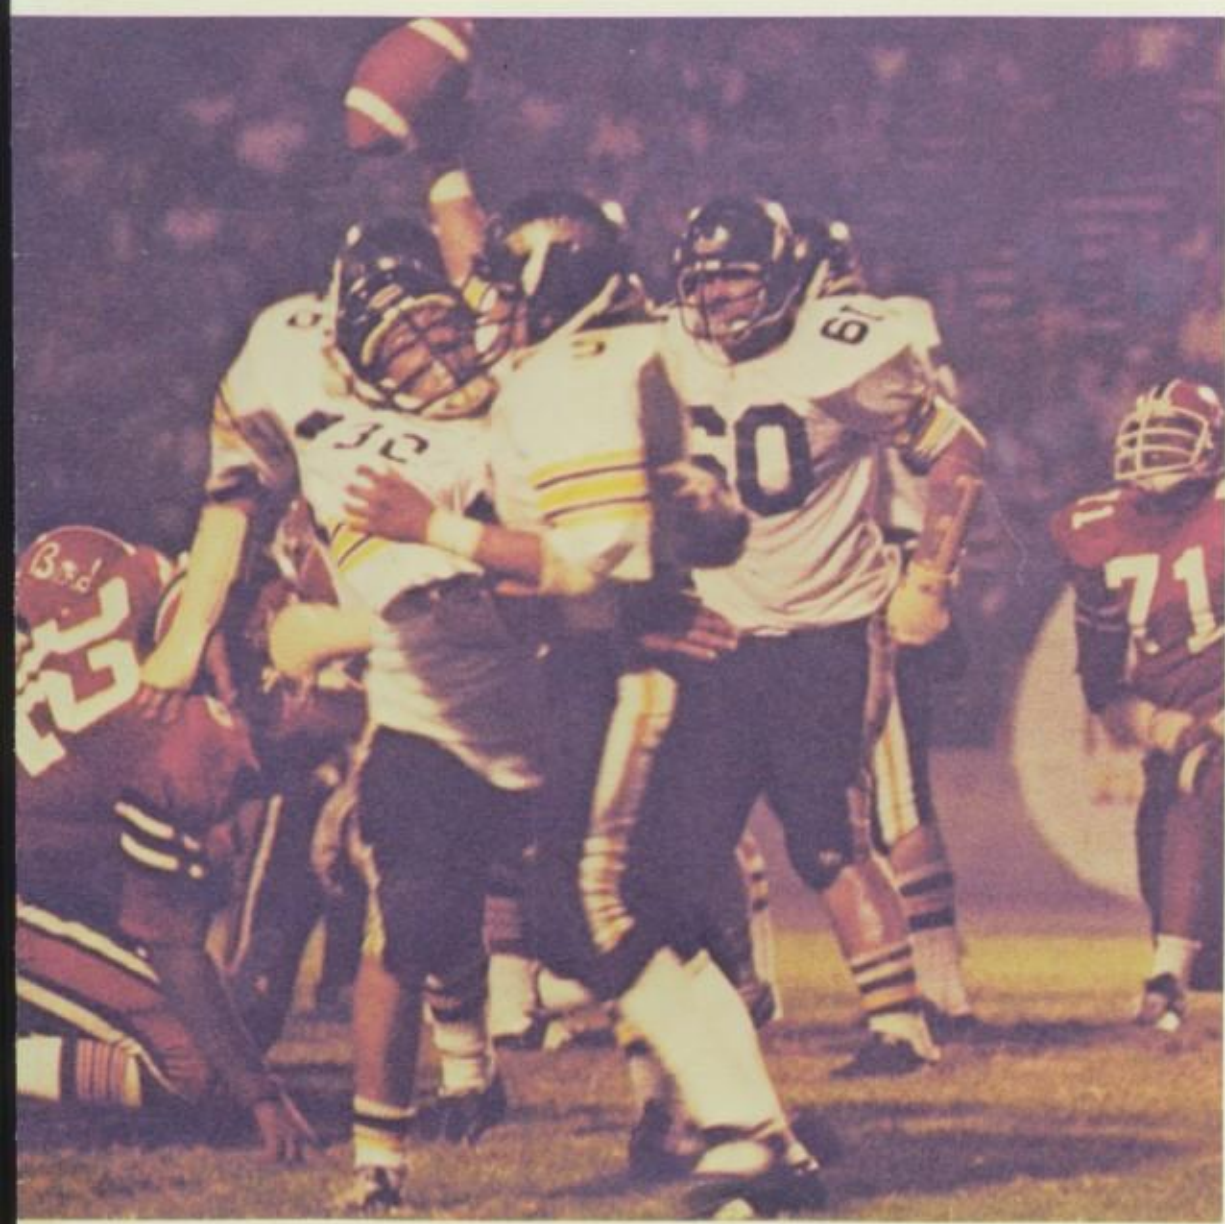

1. Disguised as a Poly player, Georgia dodges water balloons. 2. Diane and Tim relax during lunch. 3. Alvin applying for a job with Doug's company. 4. Ronan reaching for a homerun. 5. A sign seniors won't forget. 6. Proof of graduation on display. 7. Max glancing back at a friend.

Realization of Dreams

This year for R.H.S. students, "The Edge Of A Dream" came into view as the 1978/79 Falcon Football team broke away from its past record. With a new attitude and renewed confidence, the team worked together practice after practice until the challenge of putting it all together. This year's victories showed beyond the shadow of a doubt that a team with strength and determination can dream dreams and realize those dreams come true. The Eyr Staff salutes the 1978/79 varsity football team, its coaches and supporters. Our dream for the next year is winning as this year's team proved possible.

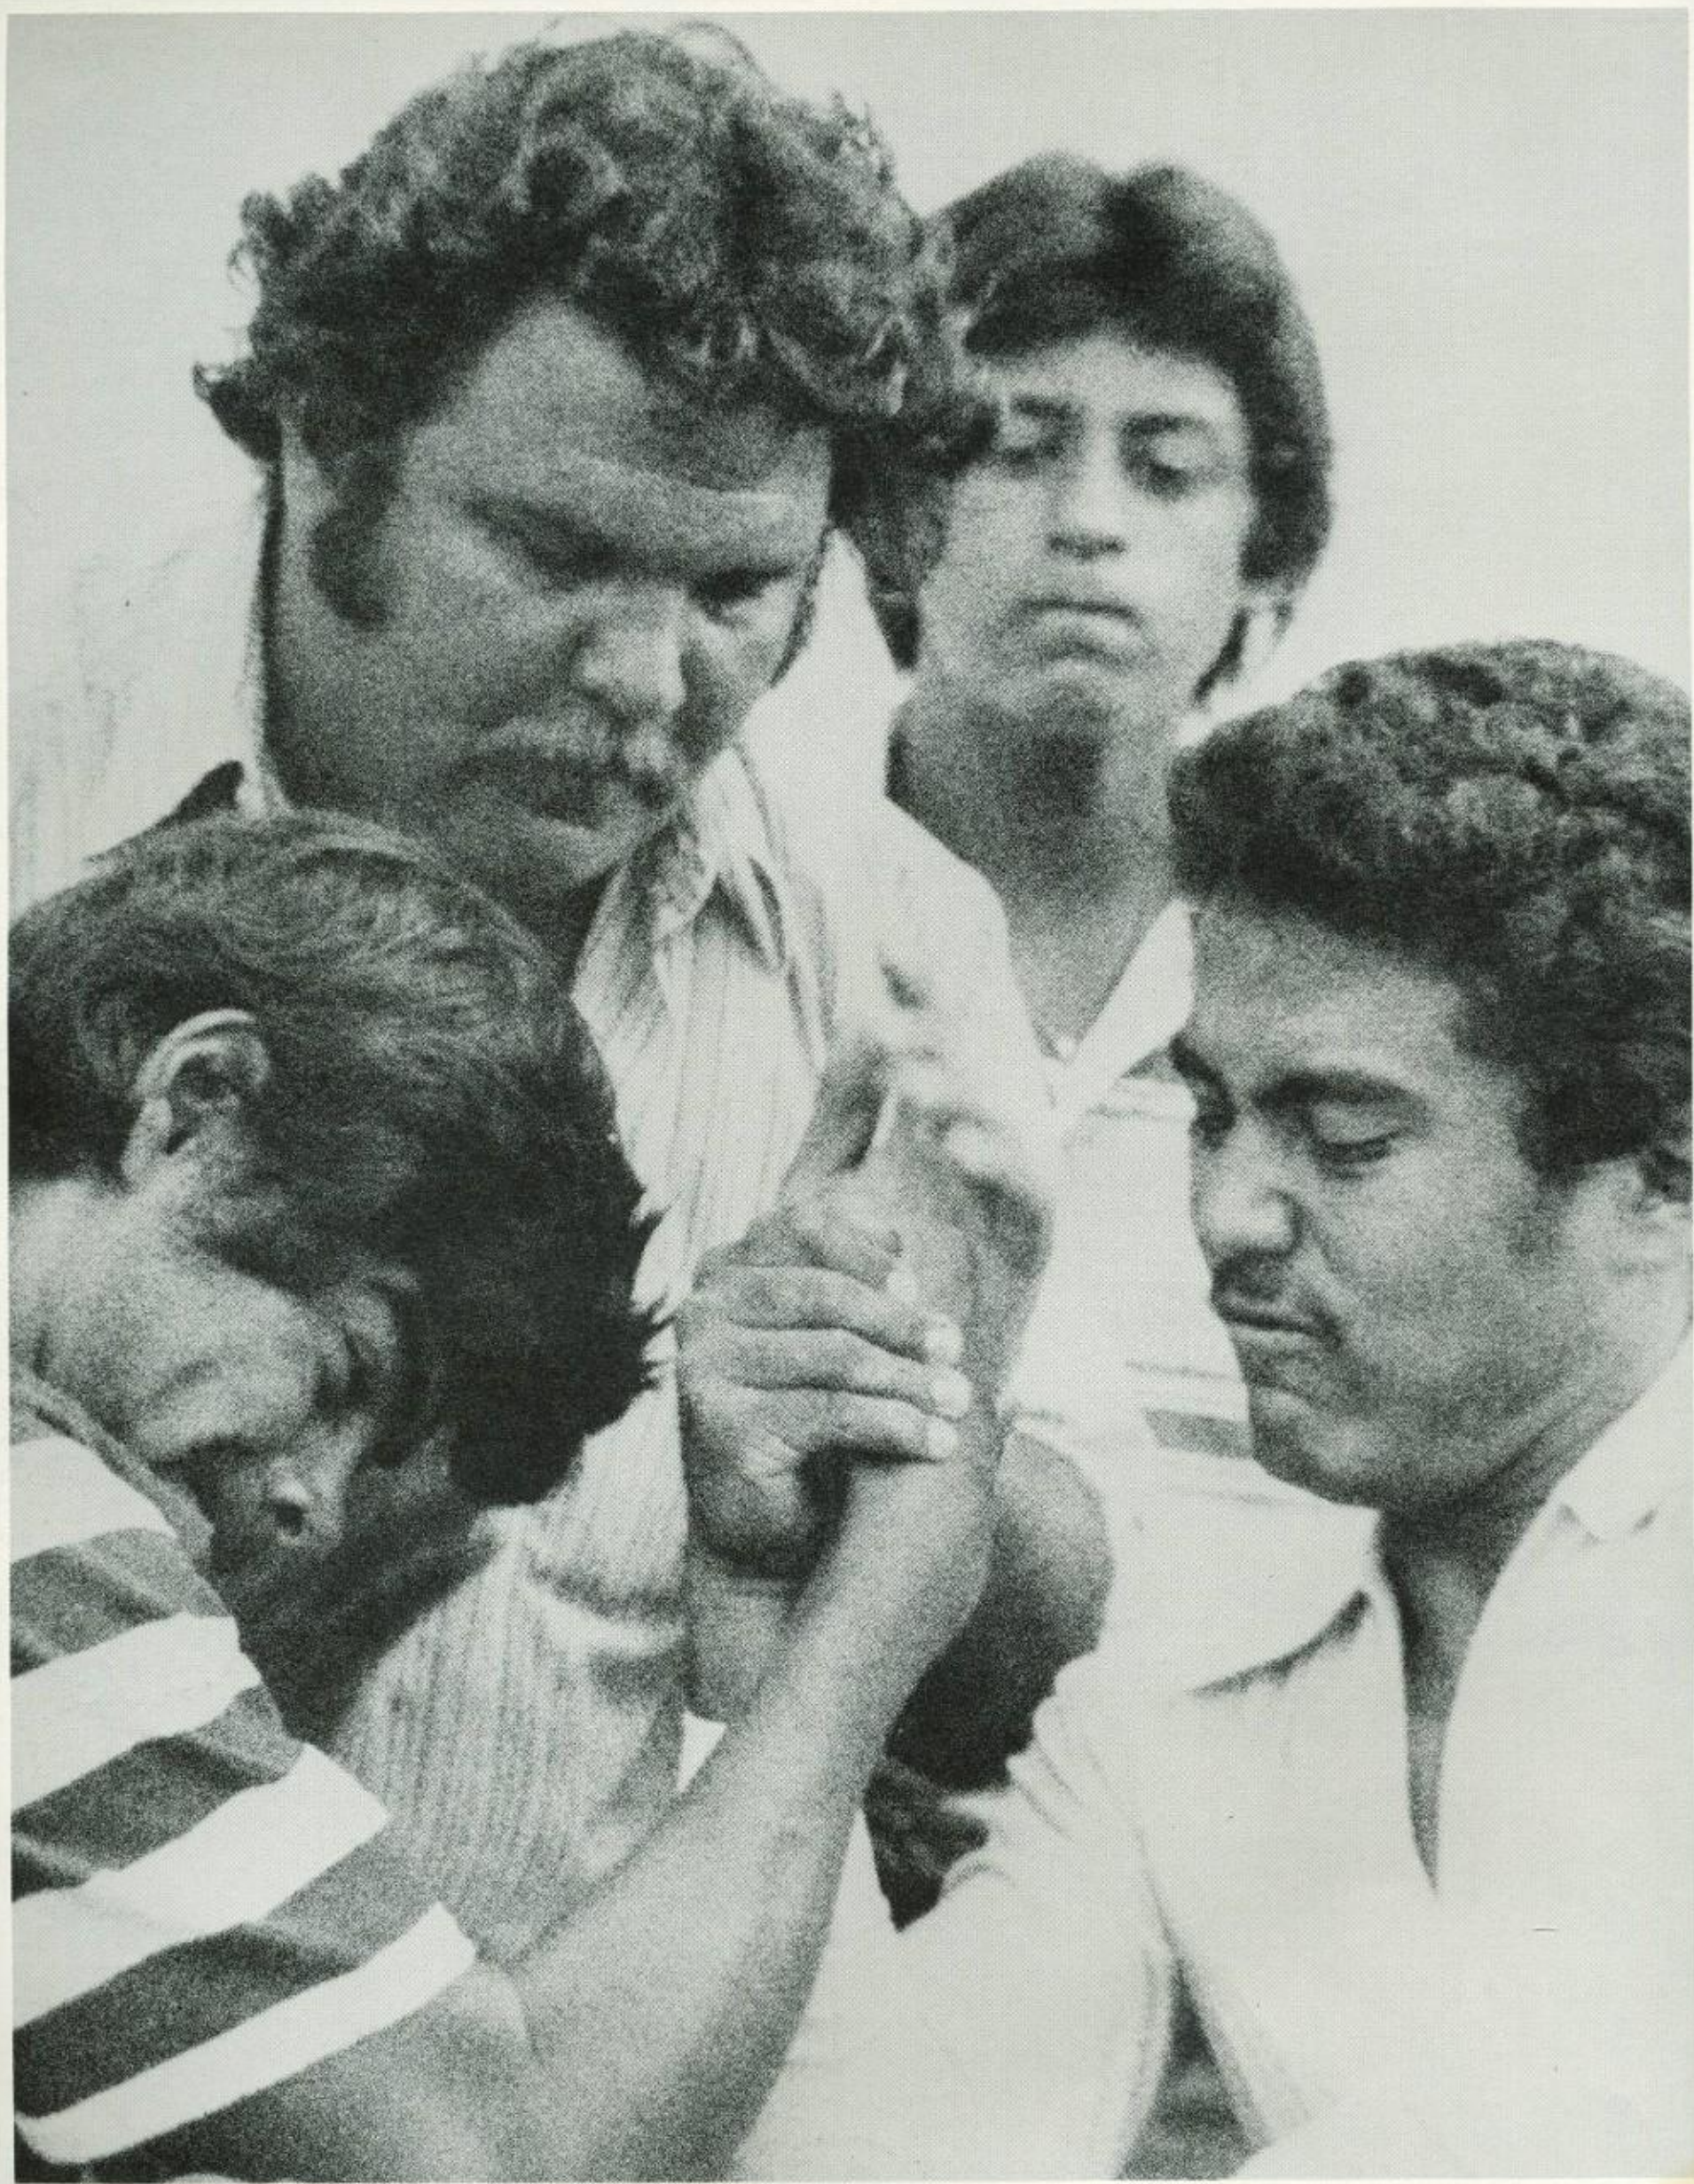

1. Greg handing off to Paul. 2. Line practice after school. 3. Brian running for six. 4. A silent prayer before the game. 5. Armando and Paul celebrating a touchdown.

1979 Prom Queen

"We've Got Tonight" ...

THAT was the song on the minds of the couples as they entered the mystically lit room. The room's decor supported the theme, while the excitement of the night could be felt in the air. Griswolds, in Claremont, on the night of May 26, 1979, was the setting for the Junior/Senior Prom. The look of the Prom was one of sheer elegance. Everyone was dressed in a sophisticated manner which created a mood of romance. The time had finally arrived. As the girls and their escorts entered the room, they seemed to be holding their breath under their smiles while waiting for the announcement of the Queen ...

SANDY ROBBINS. Tears were flowing freely as the girls congratulated the newly crowned Prom Queen. Reigning over the Prom, Queen Sandy Robbins showed that her radiant smile could still shine even through the falling tears. The thrill was in everyone as she and her escort gracefully danced the Queen's dance.

"You Can't Take It With You" was one of the most successful R.H.S. plays to date. Written in the 1930's during the depression before World War II by two of America's greatest playwrights of comedy, it spoke to us today, "Money isn't important, it's a person's personal happiness that counts." The cast and crew worked very hard and in spite of many conflicts, they achieved the rapid-fire pace, the humor, heart and understanding the script required. Mrs. Wing said, "Saturday night we played to standing room only and it was a big hit."

A.S.B.

This year's A.S.B. possessed a never-ceasing ability to over-come almost any trial or tribulation thrown it's way.

Uniting at the beginning of the year, the Council Worked together sharing their dreams, creating new ones and forming many of them into realities. Although tension sometimes arose, friendly smiles seemed to abide and laughter often could be heard coming from good-old H-1.

As A.S.B. president, I would personally like to congratulate all those who so faithfully contributed their time and determination. Only by working together we were able to make this past year one of the best in R.H.S.'s history.

Thanks for everything! It has been great!

The Eyry staff meets everyday during 4th period, but for yearbook staff members this hour is only a beginning. They are chosen the year before and from that point on its late night printing and typing until your fingers turn blue, and just when you're walking out the door someone says this is wrong, we must do it over! The main goal for our yearbook staff is to produce a book that's better than anyone ever put out here at Rubidoux and we have more than fulfilled that quota.

In my three years as Editor-in-Chief of the "Talon", I have never seen a harder working, more dedicated staff than this year's writers and editors. Whenever an assignment needed to be done, it was quickly and expertly done. The staff was faced with great challenges and it made enormous advances. It produced a newspaper that I am, and that everyone at R.H.S. should be proud of. I would like to thank everyone on and off the staff for their support. However, I would like to especially thank: Tom Walsh and Mike Hughes for their love of journalism; Georgia for her priceless moral support and encouragement; Richard for his endless photographic skills, plus Monte and Marla for filling in at two tough jobs and doing a great job.

It has been a pleasure to be your Senior Class President this year. In our class, I have witnessed a giant step towards maturity that is evidence of impending adulthood. My wish for you now is that you realize your potential and use it to the fullest because that is what success is all about.

Principal

Rubidoux is a high school of great pride and accomplishment. The graduates of 1979 have spearheaded this tradition with honor and leadership. I am proud of our students, especially the seniors, for working long and hard to accomplish their educational goals.

Principal

Vice Principal

The two assistant principals have different jobs. Mr. Werner, asst. principal of operations, acts as principal in Mr. Manzo's absence. He supervised all of the end of the year activities, prepared the master calendar, performed duties assigned by the principal and a long list of other important responsibilities. Mrs. Smith, Assistant principal of student services, directed the student counseling and guidance programs, including health services, student records, supervised the attendance program and procedures and other assigned duties.

Coordinators

Responsibility! That was the one word that described the basis for a good coordinator. All of R.H.S. coordinators had this responsibility. They worked hard to help students with their problems whether it be a class change or a personal problem. Coordinators assume total responsibility for all counseling, discipline and attendance of assigned counselees. They participate in campus, lunch, and bus supervision along with assisting with curricular activities.

Office Workers

Typing, filing and assistance to administrators were all a part of the R.H.S. office workers. Their jobs ranged from helping the sick in the nurses office, to handling activities and bookwork in the main office. Office workers were always there to handle any problem presented to them.

Superintendent

Dr. Ed Hawkins is the superintendent for the Jurupa Unified School District. He is the liaison between the Board of Education and school personnel. With the help of his administrative staff, the Superintendent develops policies, new programs and oversees the entire educational program in the Jurupa area.

School Board

Did you ever wonder how our school district functions? Community elected representatives are responsible for all the activities within the Jurupa Unified School District. Meeting at least twice a month, the board hires teachers and other staff, approves the annual budget and curriculum, and general overseeing of the school district's educational program.

Campus Supervisors

The campus supervisors worked hard to create a relaxed atmosphere at R.H.S. They were around before school, during brunch, lunch, after school and during classes to control student behavior and prevent conflict on campus.

Pool/Athletics

Tony Allega, pool supervisor, and Mike Evans, athletics assistant, have helped to create a smooth-working physical education program.

Custodians

Yuck! Isn't that what you think of when you think of trash? If it wasn't for our custodians our campus would become a mess. The custodians clean the campus, fix minor breakdowns and work to keep the school a nice place to study.

Cafeteria Workers

Every day the cafeteria and snack bar workers arrive early in the morning to prepare brunch and lunch for the many hungry students at R.H.S. Most students agreed (in an informal survey) that their favorite snack bar foods were the cakes, chocolate chip cookies, and the B.B.Q. chips. The favorite cafeteria foods were pizza and grinders.

English

Boring! Some students have found English boring, others found it interesting. English could be considered a communications class. Preparing each student to take his place in society has been the aim of each English teacher. Each student has had the opportunity to better his knowledge in communications, whether it be spoken, written or simple sign language. Role playing, dramatic productions, discussions, reading, watching movies and lectures helped to make the time pass quickly or slowly.

Agriculture

Agriculture classes at R.H.S. gave students a chance to raise a variety of animals; from rabbits and chickens to goats and cows. The students also grew fruits, vegetables and plants of their choice. Ag students took pride in their animals and plants at fairs, competing with other students who were members of Future Farmers of America organization and 4-H clubs throughout the area. They expressed themselves in the field that they enjoyed most.

Industrial

Arts

Woodshop, electricity, auto maintenance and metal shop are just a few of the subjects taught in the industrial arts program to help students learn the fundamentals of their respective crafts. They also learned techniques to help them qualify in a certain field of work.

Foreign Language

Foreign language students learned to reach out through their new languages to broaden their horizons. The foreign languages offered at R.H.S. are Spanish, German, and French. The foreign language classes offered cultural learning activities. The Spanish classes went to Olvera street in Los Angeles, the German classes dressed in German outfits of their choice, and the French classes had a French buffet dinner.

Delegates listened, some intently, some half-heartedly as juniors and seniors learned the fundamentals of government first hand by holding special elections within their government classes. Other classes in social science explore the relationships between young people and the law, personal problems and how to cope with them, working with their cultures, the history of man, and introducing young people to many career possibilities in social science.

Police Science

Justice! Often used, but seldom understood. The instructor, a Riverside County Deputy Sheriff helped students to understand the opportunities for a career in law enforcement.

Drivers Education

The rush was on as soon as the doors opened at sophomore registration there was a mad rush to the driver education line. Driver's education is a course designed to enhance the students knowledge of traffic and safety laws, to prepare them for drivers training. Students learned the mechanical aspects of driving, about insurance needs, effect of drugs on the driver and other related information. Satisfactory completion of the course enabled the student to enroll in drivers training.

Mathematics

Math essentials and general math, the foundation of the math curriculum, offered students a chance to learn math basics. Business math taught students mathematical skills needed in the business world. Higher levels of math including algebra I & II, geometry, offered the math-oriented students an opportunity to excel.

R.O.P. Work Experience

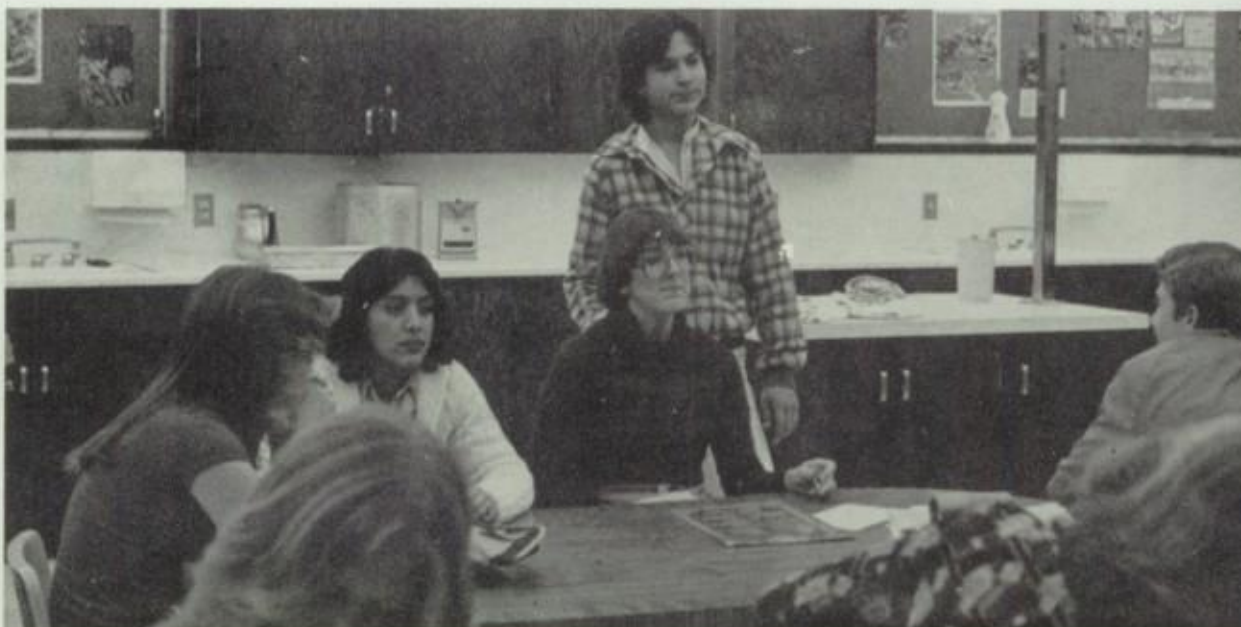

Regional Occupational Program provides upgrading of occupational skills, preparation for further training, high school credits and job placement assistance. R.O.P. is for anyone over the age of 16 with a great desire to learn. Community business/industry locations are used wherever possible. Transportation is provided to all courses by either school bus or R.T.A. passes. Credit is based on the number of hours spent in class, 16 hours equals 1 credit. R.O.P. is a program that is a cooperation program between our school and the office of Riverside County Superintendent of schools.

Falcons Fly In Exciting Ways

Exciting! The word that best describes our varsity football team. Under the direction of head coach Leo Brouhard, the mighty falcons stormed out, to a 4-1 record before faltering in their final four games. At the season opener, the emotion filled crowd backed the varsity squad all the way as the falcon gridders rolled over Victor Valley 21-14. At the end of the game, when Rubidoux's 23 game losing streak had been broken, the joy from the capacity crowd emanated must have been felt all over Rubidoux as cheers, applause, and tears streamed from the bleachers. The varsity squad was led offensively by the team's leading rusher, Brian Layton, and Paul Salazar, the most inspirational offensive player. Leaders on the defensive team were Ralph Rivero, the leading tackler, Tim Bellino, the most valuable defensive lineman, Ken Coffey, the most defensive back, and on special teams, Jose Arellano.

Competitive spirit was the inspiration for a successful volleyball season. The girls tried extremely hard, but did not make it to C.I.F. because of one crucial loss. While in practice the girls worked on their skills, in hope of improving themselves as well as becoming a team. The outstanding players were Terri Timar- Most Valuable and Melinda Clayton- Most Inspirational. This year the girls hard work made the season the best in R.H.S. history.

Competing alongside the varsity team, our JV squad, through pride and effort, found their own special success. The Class Of '80

I feel very honored to be a part of the Class of "80". We have proven ourselves worthwhile. We tried for accomplishments, and achieved our goals. By working together we saw how close a council could be, and how relying on each other brought happiness and trophies! Our plans for the future will rely on memories from the past. Our unique qualities made us stand tall, for we are the Class of '80'.

Spring Visions

You are the first one I think of
 When I awake each day;
 The last one I think of at night
 Before to sleep I must give way.
 I'm lonely as I think of you,
 Those memories remain.
 A longing comes to me for you,
 It's bringing too much pain.

Dorothy Hicks

1. A sign of age. 2. Spring in bloom. 3. Thoughts of springtime.
 4. Memories, like snow, are here today, gone tomorrow.

How long does the span of time last for the edge of a dream? What is that threshold between the waking world of today and the unlimited boundaries of what can be? A person, someday, sometime must take time to think about his life. Are we living in the realm of today or on the edge of a dream? Life must not be just the length of time in which we live our realities, and dream our dreams. It must be that span of events from which we succumb to the realization that today is past, and fantasy is nothing more than an extension of possibility.

Kel Harper
and Dan Schaub

My Kingdom is the sky,
 My world is the tallest peaks.
 I fly with the wind,
 for he is my brother.
 I am king of all that flies
 As I spread my wings in flight.
 I touch the clouds which
 I never touched before.
 I love all things of nature,
 for she is my mother.
 I strike like lightning;
 With a strong mighty blow,
 For I am as silent as a mouse
 But as strong as an eagle.

I am Proud
 I am Strong
 I am a Falcon

To Be Free

Take another vision,
 Take another chance.
 Then you start to worry,
 About some lost romance.
 Where did all your love go,
 You had so much to give?
 Dry your tears now,
 You've got your life to live.

Kel Harper

1. A ray of hope. 2. Soaring free. 3. Our dream has dawned. 4.
 Strongly breaking through to eternity. 5. Sheltered strength. 6.
 Time to think.

One small print in the light of a beam,
Stepping out on the edge of a dream.
Unlike a falling star losing it's gleam,
I can reach the sun, or an unknown stream.

Karyn Cox

Sometime during the hot and breathless summer,
I remember how often I just thought and wondered.
And everything I thought I saw so clearly,
Was lost forever in my horizons so misty.

Reflections

May you have happy days of peace,
And rich blessings which never cease:
A faith to lean on thru the years,
A joyful pathway with few tears.
And always may your love be strong;
Your life on this earth be long.
In sickness learn how to endure;
For heartaches there's a special cure.
Be thankful for a crust of bread,
A pillow if you lack a bed.
A prayerful life is what we need
To gather fruit or scatter seed.
A loving heart and a clean mind,
Are treasures from our God who's kind.
There is in you a candle bright
Sending out beams of holy light.
A blessing falls on list'ning ear
The way to heaven does appear.
We hope thru eyes of faith and see
The promise of what's yet to be.
We reminisce often of you,
Each hour is sweeter as we do.
How wonderful our thoughts combine.
Our hearts grow closer all the time.

Dorothy Hicks

Windmills, farm yards and the breeze,
Have all become part of my dreams,
These are things of yesterday,
To cherish in a special way.
Now they're gone; and we're not here,
The edge of my dream is much too near.
What I love, hope and believe,
Returns again in a hopeful breeze.

Mark Andrews
and Kel Harper

Randy,
I never told you this but I used to have a crush on you. Well this year was great and I hope
many more will be.
Good Luck to you in the future. Take Care.

Randy,

I'm so glad for you that you finally made it. I wish I could have been there more of the time but I guess it showed both of us that you can be independant of yourself. You are a good person and very special to me. I know its going to be really rough going away from all the people that care about you but that's part of growing up. You can handle anything. Always reach for the top, with your potential you can make anything you want happen! These past three years will always have a very special meaning for me. It was one big experience to grow up together with you. You are a very sentimental person and I've always been content with that among other qualities within you. I realize this is a very big part of your life and it has alot of meaning to you. I wish ^{you} every kind of happiness there is. I hope you do well in every thing you strive for. Keep in touch always and remember wherever you are I'll remember the love and special times we shared while growing up "together."

Take care Randy

Love always,

Linda

The Ery staff has demonstrated creativity, originality, determination, thoughtfulness, willingness and much more. Throughout the year as a problem arose someone stepped forward to take up the task and carry it through to the end or until someone else was ready to step in and take over.

Working together the staff members created a unique presentation of the 1978-79 year through photographs and copy.

A yearbook is not just many different sections bound together by a cover. It is a glimpse into the life of a school drawn together by a common theme.

As advisor, I would like to thank the few hardy souls who helped night after night and weekend after weekend. Our yearbook would not be what it is—GREAT—without excellent photographers, creative copy, unique layouts and outstanding organization.

I appreciate the consideration shown to the staff and myself by teachers and administrators. Your cooperation is sincerely appreciated. We sincerely appreciate the financial support of parents and business establishments who purchased ads. Without your support we would not have been able to include the special features that highlight our 1979 yearbook.

We deeply appreciated the Adult Education Office and the use of their telephone. Although their names and pictures are not found on the staff page: Veronica Aguirre, Dave Beaver, John Benton, Ed Campbell, Steve Carmona, Cami Harris, Mrs. Lantz, Heidi Runyon, Mr. Sanford, Karen Searcy, Denise Smith, Mike Trejo, Shawn Velasquez, Cindy Wallace, Sandy Wilcock helped us out when we needed them. You, too are appreciated and to the many parents whose sons or daughters were never home due to yearbook.

Thank You,
Ernest Wright,
Ery Advisor

This page has been designated to thank the handful of dedicated students who made it possible for us to have a great 1979 yearbook.

I really can't put into words how much I would like to thank each and every staff member. This year's staff has been the hardest working bunch ever. At the beginning of the year the war guns arose. Everyone was fighting for his own ideas, but before we knew it, all the ideas were joining to produce the best yearbook ever.

The yearbook staff must go thru a lot in a school year. They must keep up all five of their classes and at the same time spend three to four hours after school many days drawing layouts, taking pictures, processing film, making pictures, writing copy, typing, cropping pictures, editing, alphabetizing hundreds of names, and taking each other's guff. For many staff members this was only a start. When deadline time came, they worked before and after school, many evenings and weekends.

A Special Thanks From The Editor

First of all I would truly like to thank Patty G. She was one of the hardest workers on the staff. For one reason or another, she kept on laughing. We never could figure out her private jokes. And while talking about laughs, I want to thank Richard who kept the entire staff smiling and laughing. Richard was well known throughout the entire school because of his great dedication to photography. His good-natured criticisms kept the editors and other photographers on their toes. When it was time to eat or even go home (midnight or later), we couldn't drag him out of the dark room. Richard also had two sidekicks who were a great help at keeping us awake late at night. Although Mark and David were both new and had to take on a big job, they fulfilled their jobs well. We will never forget Mexican Mary, the law enforcement agency of I-2. I would truly like to thank Kel for hard work on the sports section. This past year Kel helped out in many ways. He gave me moral support to keep me going and was there to help anyone and everyone.

Thanks, Moria, for drawing the art work throughout the book. It added a touch of class. A special thanks to Lisa Walton, layout editor, who helped to make our layouts the best. She had to put up with a lot. I don't think we'll ever forget the time J. H. asked her to go out to lunch with him (at the snackbar).

This year we did something that was unheard of. We gave the clubs and organization section to three new girls who had never worked on a section before, Jeannette, Connie and Theresa. They did a fantastic job. There was only one problem: we couldn't figure out why they had to leave the room so much. The staff section has a reputation for being the most boring section in the book, but this year it has been enhanced. Thanks Mandy, for working so hard and so long.

I like to thank as well Debbie L., our ads person. She told us at the beginning of the year she would sell $1000.00 worth of ads, and she came very close to it. The senior section was done by Lisa Z. and Sue this year. They worked really hard and should be proud of their section. The underclassmen section was the best ever this year, mostly because of the great editors: Frosh-Cindy, Janet and Dorothy. Sophomore-Julie and Debbie A. Junior-Michelle and Lisa G. All of you girls have done a great job, and I'm sure you will always remember the cute little mug shots. Doreen was our yearbook sales person. She was very dependable. Next comes our special crew (Ery Slaves): Dorothy, Karen, Bill, Bobbie and Shari. They were always running to deliver notes, take pictures, etc. They even delivered a love letter or two of mine. Thanks!

Every year the staff has a few students who are not officially on the staff the entire year but help out on their own time. I would truly like to thank Shawn, Veronica, John, Georgia and any others who came in on their free time. It's people like you who have helped us produce this fantastic book for R.H.S. I would also like to thank Mrs. Lantz and Mr. Sanford for the use of your dictionary, record player and even your babysitting skills. It really helped!

To all teachers: I'm sorry the staff members missed your classes so much. I hope you understand! This year I have had four true friends who weren't on the staff but gave me faith to keep going. First, there's Mr. Archler, who got me into the yearbook business. Thanks for your personal advice! It helped. And then there were Kit and Kat (Kitty and Kathy) who kept telling me everything was O.K., and I could do it. You two are sweet, and I will never forget our true friendship. And last but surely not least, I'd like to thank Charlie for keeping me in a good frame of mind. Everytime I got mad, good old Charlie was there to harass me. I could not help enjoying his comments and listening to him tell me the gooky-things I should be looking at. I would like to thank Mr. Wright for his support. He's the greatest!

Last Memories

Photographers coming out of the darkroom with hickies on their neck ... Richard playing school bus, loading 15 people into his little Pinto ... Food fights at Carl's Jr ... We will never know how our club car lost at homecoming ... little fights? ... letting everyone drive the editor's car ... Hiding the Editors car ... Richards world reknown tool box ... Our Punk Rockers during club week ... The great music that could always be heard in I-2 ... and poor old Mr. Wright, he used to tell us how his wife chewed him out for never being home ... Mr. Wright saying the reason he was late all the time was because of a cement truck in the road ... and last but not least, our great relationship with A.S.B.

Thank you all,
Dan Schaub
